Standard Conditions of Release

In all cases, IT IS ORDERED that the release of the defendant is subject to the following conditions:

1. Defendant shall immediately advise the court, defense counsel, and the U.S. Attorney in writing of any change in address and/or telephone number.
2. Defendant shall appear at all proceedings as required and shall surrender for service of any sentence imposed as directed.
3. Defendant shall not commit any federal, state, or local crime.

The conditions of this bond are that the defendant named on the obverse is to appear before the Court and at such other places as the defendant may be required to appear, in accordance with any and all orders and directions relating to the defendant's appearance in this case, including appearance for violation of a condition of defendant's release as may be ordered or notified by this court or any other United States District Court to which the defendant may be held to answer or the cause transferred. The defendant is to abide by any judgment entered in such matter by surrendering to serve any sentence imposed and obeying any order or direction in connection with such judgment.

It is agreed and understood that this is a continuing bond (including any proceeding on appeal or review) which shall continue until such time as the undersigned are exonerated.

If the defendant appears as ordered or notified and otherwise obeys and performs the preceding conditions of this bond, then this bond is to be void, but if the defendant fails to obey or perform any of these conditions, payment of the amount of this bond shall be due forthwith. Forfeiture of this bond for any breach of its conditions may be declared by any United States District Court having cognizance of the entitled matter on the obverse at the time of such breach and if the bond is forfeited and if the forfeiture is not set aside or remitted, judgment may be entered upon motion in such United States District Court against each debtor jointly and severally for the amount above stated, together with interest and costs, and execution may be issued and payment secured as provided by the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and any other laws of the United States.

Special Conditions of Release

1. If defendant is subject to home detention, defendant may not leave his/her residence without the approval of the Pretrial Services Agency, except for court appearances and visits with defense counsel in this pending criminal case and for medical emergencies. In all instances, however, the defendant must notify the Pretrial Services Agency of his or her departure from the residence.
2. If the defendant fails to report as required to the Pretrial Services Agency or to appear for any specified treatment or evaluation, defendant may be subject to such random visits at his/her residence or work by a Pretrial Services Officer as may be necessary to verify his/her residence or place of employment in order to secure compliance with the order of release.

Advice of Penalties

If defendant violates any of the preceding conditions of release, a warrant will issue for his/her arrest and the terms and conditions of any further release will be reconsidered. Such reconsideration can result in a revocation of release, an order of detention, the forfeiture of any previously posted bail, and a prosecution for contempt, the latter of which could result in a term of imprisonment and/or a fine. In addition, if the defendant fails to appear as required, he/she could be prosecuted for failing to appear and, if found guilty, be subject to imprisonment for up to ten years and/or fined up to $250,000 depending upon the offense charged.

The commission of any offense while on pretrial release may result in an additional sentence upon conviction for such offense of up to ten years, depending on the offense. Defendant is advised that it is a criminal offense to intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, juror, or officer of the court, or to obstruct a criminal investigation, or to tamper with a witness, victim, or informant, or to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant, or to threaten or to attempt to do so. These offenses are punishable by up to ten years of imprisonment and a $250,000 fine. The term(s) of imprisonment imposed for any of the foregoing offenses shall be consecutive to the sentence of imprisonment for any other offense and must be imposed in addition to the sentence received for the offense itself.
